

BODRUM – HISARÖNÜ – BODRUM

BODRUM

Bodrum is a picturesque town on the southwest Aegean coast of Turkey. The Mediterranean style white houses with purple bougainvillea and the massive Castle of the Knights of Saint John attracts the visitors. The city was called Halicarnassus in the ancient times and was housing the Mausoleum one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. In these days Bodrum is also very famous with its traditional wooden type of Gulets built locally in the shipyards. Blue Voyage on a Gulet is a chance of having an unforgettable summer holiday along the coast of Aegean and the Mediterranean. Shopping around the town is a very pleasant way of spending the day, and the nightlife of Bodrum is lively with its bars, disco's and restaurants bringing people together.

KNIDOS

Cnidus was a major Dorian city, famous for its temples, theatres, statue of Aphrodite, the world's first observatory, and medical school. The rocky island facing the shore at the new site was joined to the mainland with a causeway, creating two deep harbours on either side of the isthmus, one on the Aegean and the other on the Mediterranean.

DATÇA

The Island has no humidity at all and has fresh air with plenty of oxygen. The historian Strabon has a rightful saying about Datça's weather: "God would send his beloved servants to Datça to live longer".

AKTUR

A nice beach covered covered with pine trees. Take a lunch break.

BENCIK

Bencik is located at the narrowest part of the peninsula that divides Hisaronu Gulf from the Gokova Gulf but it is closer to Hisaronu.

PALAMUTBUKU

There is a location of bare hills, village houses during the beaches, lined with small pensions and summer houses with fishing sails a beautiful city at harbour.

MESUDIYE / HAYITBUKU

Mesudiye and Hayitbükü are the places on the south coast of Datça peninsula either a lunch break or overnight stay during your cruise.

ORHANIYE

The sea water ebbs and flows and shows the rise of the natural structure . There are also the ruins of the ancient period on the Island.( Maiden's Beach )

SELI MIYE

Selimiye has a natural lagoon which is the spawning ground of many fish in the Aegean. There are also many hidden inlets where you can anchor during your Blue Cruise.

DIRSEKBUKU

Dirsek Bükü is a nice peaceful bay with its clear water you can enjoy your day and may also stay overnight.

BOZBURUN

Bozburun is a small fishing town .The people used to collect sponges but as they now consider it to be too dangerous ,so now they work in boat building and they are famous for the yachts they have built.

KARAADA

The island in the south of Bodrum covered with pine trees on the hills Island is also popular with its cave has natural hot water spring and well healing mud to skin diseases.

AQUARIUM

With its crystal clear blue water the bay is called as " Aquarium " by the people. Its a nice place to stay overnight for the gulet cruisers.

ROUTE PLAN: Our plan may vary according to the sea and weather forecast and with guests general request and preferences and it can be changed on route for our guests comfort and safety. The above places have been given as an information to help for your route planning.