

MARMARIS – FETHIYE - MARMARIS

MARMARIS

Marmaris is another popular holiday resort in the region. It is also a centre of sailing and diving and there are two major marinas for yachts wintering. The area is surrounded with pine forests and nice beaches for the sea lovers.

TURUNÇ BAY

It is a beautiful bay on the Mediterranean coast surrounded with pine trees..This area is a former fishing village Moreover despite of the fast development Turunc succeed in preserving the nature.A good evidence for the quality of this village as a resort is the the Blue Flag award that guarantees clean nature, beaches and sea water.

İZTUZU BEACH

The beach, commonly referred to as Turtle Beach and also known as IzTuzu Beach, lies at the end of the Dalyan Delta. At one end the beach is backed mountains and hills covered in pine trees, The Beach gets the name Turtle Beach from the Caretta Caretta (Loggerhead) Turtles that nest on the beach between May and September.

KAUNOS RUINS

The ancient site of Kaunos was a valuable port trading in salt on the southern coast of Caria, Unfortunately this great harbour has been overflown by earthquake which destroyed most of the parts of the city .

DALYAN

Dalyan is small town on the south-western coast of Turkey. Set in the center of a broad delta whose natural beauty remains unspoilt. Dalyan is established in an environmentally conservation area. The town has therefore retained its natural charm and beauty. A heaven for relaxation for the naturalist traveller

EKİNCİK

It is an unspoiled nature conservation area of breathtaking beauty. On the beach there is a small range of water sports facilities include banana-boat and water-ski. And there are some local shops and a restaurant.

TERSANE ISLAND

In the past, there used to be a shipyard in the area for boats building and maintenance and therefore the island named as "Tersane Island" as in Turkish boatyard

HAMAM (Sunken Bath) BAY

There is a demolished Bath can be seen in this cove and it is named as „sunken bath“.There is a small patio goes up the hill among pine and olive trees .you can see the port and watch the scenery

YASSICA ISLANDS

In accordance with cruising and anchoring regulations for the preservation of environment of Göcek bays; anchoring is no more allowed here. There are floating moorings . These islands consists of seven small islands to be visited for their shallow pool like waters especially for the children.

BEDRI RAHMI BAY

The bay called with the name of a famous Turkish artist, after his visit to the area.Ağa Harbour is another anchoring point for the yachts and selected for overnights

FETHIYE

It s a busy local market town with a large Marina.Fethiye offers a taste with its shopping streets with local farmers.Take the time around the town of tea or coffee with locals in Tea Houses.Behind town in the cliffs are several magnificent Lycian Tombs can be seen.

GEMİLER ISLAND

The Island is also known as the Island of St Nicholas .It is only small but that small area is littered with the remains of an historic monastic retreat containing among other things the original resting place of St Nicholas. The Island offers the perfect opportunity to take a break from sunbathing and spend an hour exploring the medieval remains

ÖLÜDENİZ (Dead Sea)

Ölüdeniz meaning " Dead Sea " is a beach near Fethiye and the beach is selected as the best of the world beaches in 2006 and it looks like a very calm lake .Its 1st level natural sites of protection.

ROUTE PLAN: Our plan may vary according to the sea and weather forecast and with guests general request and preferences and it can be changed on route for our guests comfort and safety.The above places have been given as an information to help for your route planning.